

Meeting Room Policy
Shelby County Public Library
Velma Wortman Morrystown Branch
Effective December 5, 2024

General Statement

The Shelby County Public Library Board of Trustees is pleased to offer the use of the Velma Wortman Morrystown Branch meeting room to responsible local organizations and individuals. Note, however, that the library's use of meeting rooms shall take precedence over all other uses. The use of rooms by non-profit or for-profit groups does not imply any endorsement of the group's activities, beliefs, or policies by the Board of Trustees or by library staff members.

General Guidelines

- Groups and individuals who use the meeting rooms are guests of the library and their use of the space should reflect that understanding. Persons attending activities in the meeting room are subject to all library policies. Use of a meeting room should not disrupt other library patrons.
- All activities shall comply with the ordinances of the city of Morrystown, state laws, and state regulations. The library director or supervising library employee may terminate any activity or use in progress that violates this policy, endangers the use of the facility, or general library operation.
- Smoking, alcoholic beverages, illegal substances, candles, and other fire-lit materials are not permitted on library property.
- Meetings should not be publicized in a manner that suggests library sponsorship or affiliation. Publicity notices promoting a meeting or event scheduled by an outside group or organization must include the following disclaimer: "This event is not sponsored by the Shelby County Public Library." Contact information for the organization should be included in all publicity. The library will not serve as liaisons for those using the meeting room.
- Some audio-visual equipment is available for program use, for an additional fee. Library staff can provide only very limited technical support, even for equipment that is rented from the library.
- If you need access to kitchenette facilities, please indicate this at the time the room is reserved.
- The application for room use is attached. Applications must be on file before the day of the event or program. Payment is due at the time a room is reserved. Tentative reservations may be made by phone and/or completed application.
- Any room reservation is considered tentative until payment has been received. Therefore, if someone else has payment in hand and wants to use a room that has been reserved but not paid for, the tentative reservation will be removed so the person ready to pay can duly establish a firm reservation.
- Do not adhere anything to the walls of the community room. Tables, chairs, and other library materials are expected to be returned to their original position in the meeting room. It is expected that groups and individuals using the meeting room will clean up after themselves. A broom, dustpan, and vacuum are available for use upon request.
- Any damage caused to the facility and/or equipment must be compensated for within 30 days at replacement cost and, if necessary, labor cost. A bill will be sent to the presiding officer of the
